Uncovering passion...Facilitating change...Securing the impossible.

WHO IS "THE BRUCE"?

Affectionately known by friends, relatives, and clients alike as "The Bruce", Bruce A. Rosenblat has over 40 years in the sales and marketing arena as well as an extensive background working in the corporate C-Suite. Driven, passionate, hardworking, and industrious, he is well known for providing added value to his clients and associates.

A trusted resource, his experience, understanding, and forthright communication are what drive clients to search him out as a valuable resource. Bruce is a highly experienced sales and marketing coach specializing in both habitual behavior and identifying the need for, and execution of change.

Additionally, he is also a published author appearing in many trade publications as well as his hometown Detroit News and Free Press. As a successful blogger and former radio host, he authored his own book entitled "It's A Great Deal, All Three Of Me Think So". Bruce has also been featured as a guest speaker, at numerous public and private sector events.

COACHING/TRAINING FOR EXCELLENCE

Ready, set, achieve the impossible... Bruce is sought out by individuals as well as organizations in order to help them move forward. Recognizing that individuals and organizations both often stop or stumble when confronted with roadblocks, his three-step paradigm often leads to unprecedented results. Clients he has worked with include major powerhouses including Lear, Bankers Life, Metaldyne, PRMG, and Fairway Independent Mortgage as well as many independent entrepreneurs.

Bruce is a master of inventive and thought-provoking insight. He creates the chance to see things as you have never seen them before, allowing you the opportunity to grow and expand in areas that you never dreamed. To find out more about Bruce's experience as a coach or to schedule a session, feel free to contact him.
